Discover the fascinating world of Mexico. There are several hidden treasures just waiting to be explored. Ancient Aztec pyramids, authentic foods and fantastic shopping. Whether you're looking to visit past civilizations or simply lie on the beach and work on your golf game... Mexico can accommodate.

A passionate celebration for life, Mexico is a country of countries. From the glorious metropolis of Mexico City to the tropical jungles of Chiapas, a visit to Mexico is a voyage through the living veins of a fascinating country. Cancun is a lively resort with spectacular white sand beaches and a variety of restaurants and bars whilst 80 miles south is Tulum, which is a lot quieter.

To wedding or honeymooners it is the perfect romantic getaway to start life together. To outdoor sports enthusiasts, Cancun is the perfect place to catch some great waves, go parasailing or dive in the clear blue ocean

Cozumel remains a serene, quiet and undiscovered piece of paradise although it is actually the largest inhabited. The combination of natural beauty and visitor amenities rivals any Caribbean island destination. Until recent years, Cozumel was known mainly as a popular port-of-call for cruise ship passengers and not much else. That has begun to change, however, as more and more visitors discover the stunning natural beauty of Cozumel.

This mix of modern and traditional, clichéd and surreal, is the key to Mexico's charm, whether your passion is throwing back margaritas, listening to howler monkeys, surfing the Mexican Pipeline, scrambling over Mayan ruins or expanding your collection of posable Day of the Dead skeletons.. Mexico has it all!

The first tourist here was Christopher Columbus in 1492, when he proclaimed, "This is the fairest land under Heaven". Since then it has developed into a diverse destination offering both Dominican and European flavours. At 10,000 feet, it is home to the highest mountain range in the entire Caribbean and offers some of the most beautiful beaches in the world.

The beautiful Punta Cana shoreline is protected by law, ensuring that no manmade structure can detract from the natural beauty of these calm tranquil beaches that are perfect for those who love to enjoy their favourite water sports and sample the great diving. Punta Cana is famous for its European style hotels and shopping for traditional local arts and crafts. Its golf courses are second to none. This is a real place for vegging out: miles of silky-fine white sand and deserted beaches with coconut palms.

La Romana, Dominicus is an excellent choice for rest and relaxation holidays, honeymoons, family holidays, family reunions, teenagers, active travellers, scuba divers and golfers. Along the cobblestone streets and hidden in the numerous shaded courtyards of Altos De Chavon, visitors will find a tantalizing array of art galleries and shops. Enjoy world-class championship golf courses, explore the archaeological museum, play in the waves or relax under a swaying palm on powder sand beaches.

The Dominican people love a good party, with their traditional music and hospitable culture being the inspiration for many of their festivals.

Popular with European visitors alike, Barbados is much more developed than any of the other Caribbean islands, and the island enjoys the highest rate of repeat visitors in the Caribbean. The island has some 60 miles of beach protected by coral reefs, thus making it ideal for water sports. The best beaches are located on the tranquil west coast where in fact most of the hotels are situated. The capital, Bridgetown, has a beautiful setting on Carlisle Bay, the island's only natural harbour. Along the southwestern coast about nine miles from Bridgetown, there's a cluster of small towns with excellent beaches, the liveliest being St. Lawrence.

Shopping in Barbados is tax-free. The main shopping area is Broad St. in Bridgetown, which houses several large department stores, and duty-free shops.

Barbados has an abundance of fine restaurants, offering a wide variety of local specialities, seafood, and continental cuisine. Casual wear is acceptable in most restaurants by day, and a more formal dress code is expected at night. St. Lawrence Gap is where all the restaurants and bars come alive at night.

Barbados offers visitors to the island a unique culture, which is reflected in its varied architecture, cuisine, dance, music, theatre, and art. Renowned for its "laid back" attitude, Barbados offers its visitors a perfect destination for a relaxing holiday.

The warm climate offered all year round coupled with the miles of sandy beaches makes for an idyllic holiday destination.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Underwater exploration by submarine, a unique experience
- Excellent diving be it SNUBA or SCUBA
- Explore Harrison's cave by an underground tram journey
- 4X4 Island safari to explore the Islands inner treasures

Antigua is for lovers....of beaches, sailing and sunsets. This low lying coral island is surrounded by reputedly 365 beaches, each one pristine white and often in its own secluded cove. However, Antigua has so much more to offer, whether it's sailing, diving or another choice of waterbourne activity. Antigua, the largest of the English-speaking Leeward Islands, is about 14 miles long and 11 miles wide, encompassing 108 square miles. Its highest point is Boggy Peak (1319 ft.), located in the southwestern corner of the island. Barbuda, a flat coral island with an area of only 68 square miles, lies approximately 30 miles due north. The nation also includes the tiny (0.6 square mile) uninhabited island of Redonda, now a nature preserve.

St. Johns the capital is fairly small but lively for shopping and dining. Cruise ships dock here and the recently developed Heritage Quay has a range of duty free shops, restaurants and a casino. You can also visit Nelson's Dockyard in English Harbour.

Temperatures generally range from the late twenties in the winter to the early thirties in the summer. Annual rainfall averages only 45 inches, making it the sunniest of the Eastern Caribbean Islands, and the northeast trade winds are nearly constant, flagging only in September. Low humidity year-round.

Its relaxed yet quality conscious hotels, its hardly-been-touched countryside and its unhurried, laid back lifestyle make Antigua one of the most popular destinations in the Caribbean.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- The sunniest Island in the Eastern Caribbean
- Catch the view from English Harbour and Nelson's Dockyard - one of the most picturesque and beautiful harbour areas in the Caribbean
- Visit Heritage and Radcliffe Quay for great shops, restaurants, casino and supper club.
- Sample a local Wadadli beer whilst watching the glorious sunsets
- Take the Fig Tree drive through the rainforest
- Outstanding beaches

Bonbini, in the native language of Papiamentu, means "Welcome". Welcome to Aruba.

The beaches curve like an Aruban smile along the western shores, soft and white and fringed with palm trees, sloping gently toward the calm transparent turquoise of the Caribbean. The waves of the windward coast crash like incessant thunder against the northern cliffs, carving high, arched coral bridges and deep, dark secret limestone grottoes.

Between the two extremes, in a desert landscape where the cacti grow to the height of a man, great building-sized tumblers of boulders stand like the legacy of some ancient, angry god. Winding roads lead to rocky passes and hidden coves, or sometimes to nowhere at all. Giant green parakeets call to their mates, and troupials flash brilliant orange against the deep blue of the Caribbean sky.

This is not the Caribbean as usual. This is Aruba! And if it's true that opposites attract, then this could well be the most attractive island of them all. The fact is, if you're looking for it, and if it has anything to do with a great Caribbean getaway, you can probably find it here in Aruba.

- Oranjestad the islands capital.
- Butterfly farm

One of the world's most fascinating destinations, Cuba has something for everyone, from its stunning colonial architecture, UNESCO preserved habitats, breathtaking scenery and a wealth of unspoilt tropical beaches.

Havana: Havana is one of the most fascinating cities in the world and we strongly recommend a few days' stay to explore the exquisite Spanish architecture, narrow cobbled streets, the dramatic Revolution Square, Museum of the Revolution and of course the famous mural of Che Guevara.

Varadero: Varadero is located on the 18 kilometre peninsula of Punta Hicacos and is famous for its virtually uninterrupted stretch of white sandy beaches which shelve gently into the sea. With a wide choice of hotels, Varadero is an excellent beach destination that can cater for both the most relaxed and the more energetic visitor.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Plaza De Armas, Havana. This historic square is home to the city history museum housed in a stunning baroque building, Havana's oldest military fortress and a 17th century palace once home to the Senate and Supreme Court. It also plays host to a market popular with visitors and Cubans alike.
- Parque Central, Havana. This leafy square in the heart of the city is a fascinating place to sit and watch the world to by. It is overlooked by the Teatro Nacional, a stunning piece of baroque architecture and El Capitolio, which is a replica of the one in Washington with breathtakingly beautiful vaulted ceilings and majestic halls.
- Parque Josone, Varadero. This beautiful park is laid out around an old mansion, privately owned before the Revolution. Also in the grounds are 3 restaurants, several open air bars, a swimming pool and rowing oats for rent on the lake.
- Trinidad. This UNESCO preserved city is a stunning testimony to the colonial area and many of its original buildings are still standing, furnished with exquisite furniture, silver, gold, and ceramics. Other attractions in the area include the pristine Ancon peninsula bordering the Caribbean and the spectacular Escambray mountains.

The Maldives is situated on the equator, South West of Sri Lanka and comprises of over 1,100 islands forming 26 major atolls. 87 of these Islands are exclusive island resorts and just over 200 are inhabited.

As the Maldives are located on the equator, the average temperature rarely drops below 27° C with an average maximum of 32° C in the warmest months.

Cultural and historical influences date back to 500 bc when it is believed the first inhabitants came from Ceylon in Sri Lanka.

Travellers and early settlers from the days of the Silk Route have also brought influences from both East Africa and South Asia.

The majority of Maldivians are Muslims and Islam is the national religion.

The Maldives offers some of the finest beaches and crystal clear waters you will find and boasts some of the best diving opportunities in the world.

Due to the geographical nature of the Maldives, there is a lack of natural resources which means that almost everything has to be imported. This can mean that certain items are expensive when compared to home.

Marco Polo described Sri Lanka as "Undoubtedly the finest island of its size in the world". Sri Lanka, the Isle of Serendipity is a tourist paradise, a tropical island of golden beaches and blue waters. Famed for the amazing diversity of its culture, the natural beauty of the landscape and a complex history dating back to 543 BC.

One can choose from a variety of activities from lazing on one of the beautiful beaches to diving in coral reefs, observing the wildlife, mountain hikes through tea estates or wandering through the ruins of ancient temples and palaces. Sri Lanka has something for everyone.

The Capital of Sri Lanka, Colombo is a metropolitan city which keeps pace with modern developments while preserving the old world charms.

Among the many places of interest in the city are the Fort, the old Parliament House, Temples and Mosques. It is fast becoming the shopping centre of South Asia with highly competitive duty free prices.

The Southern coastal belt is the most popular and comes alive mainly from October through April when the monsoon moves north east and the sea becomes calm with blue skies as it is the perfect place to spend the winter vacation. The main beach resorts are at Beruwala, Bentota, Galle and Hikkaduwa with stunning hotels each with exclusive beachfronts.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Pinawela Elephant Orphanage: Visit at feeding and bathing time
- 1,600 km of unspoilt golden beaches

East Africa is an enchanting land of vast open plains, mountains, lakes, and beautiful beaches lapped by warm crystal waters. These intoxicating countries are home to friendly people with a rich culture and some of the most stunning wildlife experiences on earth. It is a land that will change your perception of life forever.

At the heart of the African Safari experience - You are pretty much guaranteed to have an encounter with each of the 'Big 5'; Lion, Buffalo, Leopard, Rhino and Elephant all focused on their daily battle for survival.

There is the unmatched luxury tented camps with some of the most memorable views in the world, comfortable lodges or the old-fashioned mobile camping safari. Whether you want to experience bush life in an untamed corner of Africa, or linger on idyllic palm fringed white sandy beaches, all the attractions of Africa await.

Each Reserve is unique character:

The Masai Mara - The big one! Over 320 square kms with a huge variety and abundance of wildlife make this a 'not to miss' on any safari itinerary.

The Great Rift Valley - One of the wonders of the world. The valley forms a wide trench (5400 miles long) down the length of Africa that is visible from the moon.

Amboseli - Get your camera out! Lion, buffalo, herds of Elephants set against the stunning backdrop of Africa's highest peak, Mount Kilimanjaro

The Serengeti - The Migration, one of the greatest wildlife spectacles on earth, a heart-stopping shadow created by nearly 2 million wildebeest, zebra and gazelle, no drought, gorge or crocodile infested river can hold them back.

Ngorongoro Crater - Created 25 million years ago, over 500 metres deep, stunning when viewed from above but even more amazing once you go down to the crater floor! Its the best self-contained safari destination in the world, the 'Garden of Eden'

Lake Nakuru - A Soda Lake famous for it's millions of pink flamingos and over 400 species of bird. It also houses both the endangered black & white Rhinos.

Lake Manyara - one of the prettiest and game rich parks in the country. Remember to look up whilst in the park for its tree-climbing lions, there are also plenty of leopards.

Aberdares - With waterfalls, rainforests and rivers the scenery here is quite unique. Home to the famous Treetop lodge. It has been described as 'Scotland with Lions'.

Samburu - North of Nairobi in the hot, arid fringes of the vast northern region of Kenya, the lands of the Samburu people, close relatives of the Masai.

Tsavo - Kenya's largest safari destination and one of the largest wildlife sanctuaries in the world! At 10 million square acres it is bigger than the island of Jamaica.

South Africa, often described as "a world in one country" certainly lives up to its description. Being in the Southern Hemisphere means South Africa has opposite seasons to ourselves, December to February being the warmest months whilst June to August are the coolest. Cape Town has a typically Mediterranean climate whilst KwaZulu Natal coast and Kruger National Park areas would have a sub-tropical climate. The high plateau area of the interior which includes Johannesburg can get quite cool at night.

We have chosen a selection of quality hotels in both Cape Town and The Garden Route together with private game reserves.

A few hours drive East of Cape Town will bring you to Mossel Bay, the start of the Garden Route. The route continues Eastwards to Tsitsikamma forest and you can then continue onwards to Port Elizabeth with many stops along route certainly recommended. These include Oudthoorn, Knysna, Plettenberg Bay, Tsitsikamma and George. At the end of your journey why not continue on past Port Elizabeth, about 40 minutes, and take in a 2 or 3 day safari at the Malaria-free Kariega Game Reserve. South Africa has something for everyone, so enjoy the experience.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Table Mountain - 360 degree breathtaking views of Cape Town
- Visit a Township - Pop in for a beer with the locals in a Shebeen
- Colony Jackass Penguins
- Cape of Good Hope - Where the Atlantic meets the Indian Ocean

On Safari

Our experienced travel consultants will provide you with assistance and guidance in easily organising a memorable holiday in Southern and Eastern Africa. We are delighted to offer safari options within South Africa, Botswana, Namibia, Kenya, Tanzania, and Zambia with beach holiday extensions available in destinations such as Mauritius, Zanzibar and the Seychelles. We are dedicated to providing the best possible wildlife experience for you and all our tours are designed, managed and directed by specialists around you.

Classic Resorts firmly believe that responsible tourism is the only way one can guarantee the sustainable wilderness areas for present and future generations. Tied in with this, is our commitment to the environment trying to minimize our footprints and respecting the fauna and flora whose territories are visited.

Here are some of our most frequently asked questions regarding Southern Africa safaris:

When is the best time to go on safari?

South Africa is a year-round destination, and the best time to visit depends on your priorities. Safaris are best in the winter months (May to August) when the grass is lowest, so game viewing is easier, and the temperatures are mild (20–33°C).

The best season for the beach is summer (November to mid-March). Temperatures reach 28–30°C or higher on truly beautiful days.

How long should I stay?

A minimum of a two-night stay is recommended to really enjoy your African bush experience.

How do I get around between reserves?

In South Africa, the major reserves are concentrated in Mpumalanga and the Limpopo Province, and you can reach them by flying directly to Johannesburg or Cape Town, then catching a connecting flight to an airport in or near the reserves, and hiring a car or arranging a transfer to and from your lodge. Or you can opt for a 4–5 hour drive from Johannesburg admiring the scenery on route.

For the Eastern Cape reserves, Port Elizabeth is the closest airport - the reserves are between 20–100 minutes' drive and best of all, these reserves are malaria-free. Visiting one of these is ideally the start or exit point of a driving trip along the Garden Route to or from Cape Town, a wonderfully scenic drive with great choices in lodgings.

Where can I see game in a malaria-free area?

South Africa is only place in the world where you can enjoy a malaria free African safari holiday. Both the Eastern Cape's game reserves and Madikwe, near Johannesburg, boast the Big Five, so you won't compromise your wildlife viewing or your health.

Do I need to visit a private reserve?

The best reason to visit a private reserve is that you are guaranteed to see more animals, and you will learn more about the intricacies of the bush. Visitors are taken for game drives in an open-topped vehicle by an armed and knowledgeable ranger, usually helped by a tracker, and in radio communication with other vehicles. Sightings are excellent on game drives (at least two of the Big 5 in one drive), and it's great to have your questions answered without having to flip through a book.

In certain reserves, like Sabi Sand and Thornybush rangers are allowed to drive off-road, taking you almost within touching distance of animals.

What is a typical day on safari?

A typical day starts with a 3-hour, early-morning game drive, where guests are accompanied by a game ranger and tracker - followed by a large cooked breakfast, possibly in the bush.

A guided walk is generally offered before lunch, and afternoons are spent relaxing at the pool or on a viewing deck.

Night drives take place during the sunset/early evening hours, with drinks (sundowners) served in the bush, and the last hour or so is spent driving with a spotlight. Night drives can be incredibly dull or totally exhilarating, with nocturnal predators stalking and killing prey, a rare but privileged sighting. Dinners are large and delicious, and often served under the stars by firelight.

What is included?

Safari camps are generally all-inclusive (Unless otherwise stated), which means the cost of the accommodations, meals, guides, game activities, and park entry fees are included.

Combining a safari with a few days at the beach or with a self-drive tour along the Garden Route, can make a fantastic trip more affordable.

Are safaris suitable for families?

The age range and makeup of your party should be taken into account. Some safari camps do not allow children under age 12. A family has different requirements than a honeymoon couple.

While some safaris are kid-friendly, keep in mind that a certain amount of quiet, concentration, patience, and immobility is required. Please ask one of our experts for more details.

The Republic of Singapore is located on the Malay Peninsula and reaches out across around 40 adjacent islands most of which have beautiful tropical beaches that due to their proximity to the equator are warm and great for swimming and diving all year round

Singapore's climate is warm and humid, with only slight variations between the average maximum of 31 degrees celcius and minimum of 23 degrees celcius. This makes it ideal for those who enjoy sunbathing, swimming, sailing and other water sports. But for those who do not enjoy the tropical climate, Singapore is sheltered from the worst effects of the sun with air-conditioning in almost all of its shops, hotels, office buildings and restaurants. Rain falls throughout the year, with more consistent rain coming during the monsoon season from November to January. Showers are usually sudden and heavy, but also brief and refreshing

Singapore has a wide range of differently priced restaurants to suit the needs of travellers. Local fare found at hawker centres and kopitiams or open-fronted local coffee shops are very reasonably priced indeed while luxurious meals served at five-star establishments are still excellent value for money.

Shopping is one of the greatest pleasures in Singapore. Part of the fun is the excellent buys and great variety of shops all over the island. Delight in a bargain at a little neighbourhood shop, pick up a quaint item or two as you stroll through colourful ethnic quarters, discover favourite buys of the droves who flock to the modern malls or be enthralled by the splendour of whole shopping "cities" selling everything under the sun. Many top hotels also have an attached shopping arcade with fine boutiques specialising in designer fashion, accessories, jewellery and watches.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- See the Tai Chi in the beautiful Botanical Gardens
- Visit Sentosa Island, with an underwater world, insect kingdom, and volcano land alongside fantastic beaches
- Soak up the atmosphere in Chinatown
- Great shopping in the famous Orchard Road
- Take afternoon tea at famous 'Raffles'

Hong Kong is located in the Far East, just south of the Tropic of Cancer. Hong Kong Island is 32km (20 miles) east of the mouth of Pearl River and 135km (84 miles) southeast of Canton. It is separated from the mainland by a good natural harbour. With its vibrant people, rich history, and dramatic setting of steel skyscrapers against soaring, green mountains, Hong Kong is one of the most spectacular cities in the world today. It's a great city to visit and it's very "tourist friendly", almost by default. Not only is Hong Kong very compact, but the transportation systems are plentiful, easy to understand, and inexpensive. There are first-rate hotels, restaurants, and museums inside a bustling city and tranquil, idyllic islands a short ferry-hop away.

Hong Kong is an all-year-round destination. It enjoys a mild climate from the middle of September to the end of February, while the weather from May to mid-September is rather warm and humid. Eighty per cent of Hong Kong's precipitation occurs between May and September, with August registering the highest rainfall

Hong Kong is a unique city and one of our favourites!!

The beautiful Indonesian island of Bali is called "The Isle of the Gods", and it is not without reason. Its landscape of lakes and fast flowing rivers littered with banyans and palm groves and adorned with the exquisite artistry of carefully carved rice paddies. Inlets and coves indenting its coast are filled with white sand and sweeping bays are backed by the blossoms of a tropical Eden scented with subtle fragrances.

Fantastic as a feast of nature, it is viewed by the Balinese as little more than a suitably colourful backdrop for their fabled tier-roofed temples and frequent cultural festivals. It is far from untouched by tourism but there is ample space and inspiration of meditative moments.
